Hair Types

Type 2 - Wavy

Type 2 waves are bendable, can be fine to coarse, and are characterised by their definitive s-shape pattern.

2a - Tousled almost-straight texture with a loose, soft bend.

2b - Straighter roots with defined s-shape curls starting below brow level.

2c - Defined waves starting at the root mixed in with some full ringlets

Type 4 - Coily

Type 4 hair forms very tight, small coils & zig-zags straight from the root & are prone to major shrinkage.

4a - Dense, springy s-shaped coils that fit around a chopstick.

4b - Small, tight coils similar to a spring in a pen.

4c - Tightly coiled, z-shaped strands with greater density & shrinkage.
